"the possibility of getting signed to a large, truly independent record label and, with their support, Fikry, a former recipient of a president’s award for services to decentralisation, has suggested