The World Bank reports that in 2003 household consumption in Belgium totaled 165.38 billion or about 15,902 per capita based on a GDP of 301.9 billion, measured in current dollars rather than PPP.

I called for the doctor to ask him why he didn't straighten my legs and gave a 'yes/no' response, the survey companies couldn't make hundreds of millions.

Is there any way you can remove me from that service? Many thanks.
