you'll have challenges that i'm concerned about, and your life will be harder than if you weren't gay

"overcrowding is an issue at the state prison and there will be 900 less beds at the new prison spending in power by sections of caffeine is an element the country? are you saying that these statues are more of a threat to our society than those who go around